

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Everything happens in Ocean Beach.

Tuesday morning a ring-necked pheasant crashed through the window at Noel's Bakery, Newport Ave. and Bacon St.

Dave Noel and Paul Thomas were standing near the window when the large feathered projectile shattered the glass and landed clear across the room. Yeah, they were a little startled. The window was a total loss but the speckled brown pheasant apparently was unhurt. Noel put him into a box for safe keeping. He had to throw out 10 pounds of icing and two dozen eclairs which were well seasoned with glass.

What next? Henry Holman, of 4840 Saratoga Ave., got a letter the other day from Wausau, Wis., marked "Rush — Special Delivery."

The envelope contained a quantity of loose hayseed or something and a postcard asking: "Did it really hail in San Diego? Answer below."

Holman answered, "Yes, a little," and sent back the card to his old friend Charles Herbst Jr., of Milwaukee.

Comes now Walter E. Newell, of 3684 Frontier St., who writes as follows:

"I have followed your column in the Peninsula News regarding prize-fighting or, as some prefer to call it, professional and/or amateur boxing, with a great deal of interest.

"The recent death of Ed Sanders (former S. D. Naval Training Center heavyweight boxer), caused by injuries received in the ring in Boston, should be enough to provoke San Diegans to a new and different trend of thought regarding this so-called 'manly art'.

"There have been many other instances where death or permanent injury resulted from this gladiatorial type of sport, only a shade removed from Al-ley Oop's days.

"I once had a close friend who at one time was a contender for the bantamweight crown in one of our neighboring states. The last word I had of him told of his confinement in the state asylum for the insane. His condition was caused by head injuries received from his participation in this 'manly art'."

Austin Hartvigsen watched a boy selling programs at a recent Point Loma High School basketball game.

When the boy failed to make a sale to a spectator, he would display a program on which was printed in large letters:

CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATE IS POINT LOMA RESIDENT

A business approach to the increasing number of community problems, with disregard for political considerations, is proposed by D. D. Williams, Jr., of 3107 Zola St., who today formally announced his candidacy for the City Council from the Second District.

The district he seeks to represent includes Point Loma, Midtown and part of Mission Hills. This is his first bid for public office.

Williams, president of the D. D. Williams Piggly Wiggly Stores, Inc., has been a resident of San Diego 32 years. "I have been asked," he said, "Why does a business man want to mess around in politics? My answer is that everyone, whether in a business or in a shop, has a stake in San Diego's future, and each should be a working member of the team. Moreover, I view Councilmanic responsibilities as an opportunity for public service, to which I am prepared to completely devote myself."

Williams came to San Diego from Oakland in 1922, and attended San Diego High School and State College. He entered business life in 1940, enlisted in the army and served 3½ years in World War II. He succeeded his father, the late D. D. Williams, Sr., on the latter's death six years ago. In addition to heading the local store group, he is national president of Piggly-Wiggly Operators Association, comprising 1700 stores throughout the country.

He is a past governor of the 14th District, Optimist International.

With Mrs. Williams and their two sons, Dudley, 12 and Steven, 10, the candidate resides at the Zola street address.

Rumsey, rear commodore; Marvin Herman, secretary; J. Harvey Chambers, treasurer; and D. D. Williams, Jr., Gene Trepte and E. G. O'Bryan, directors.

Peanut Pyramid To Be Stacked Fri. And Sat.

A "pyramid of peanuts" will be stacked in front of the Safeway parking lot on Newport Ave. in Ocean Beach Friday afternoon and Saturday, with Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds making their final effort to wind up their annual fund-raising project with record-breaking sales.

According to Mrs. Waldo Lyon, chairman of the Peanut Sale in this area, several hundred cans of peanuts remain to be sold by Saturday night to reach the local quota.

She said "peanut pyramids" will be located in each community throughout the county where Camp Fire Girls are participating in the project in an endeavor to complete the sale with a goal of 75,000 cans sold.

She Catches Six Big Fish On A Six-hook Rig

Yellowtail fishing at the famous Rock Pile was almost at a standstill early this week, when water temperatures dropped several degrees as the result of a switch in currents following a strong Santa Ana condition, but anglers put their talents to good use by taking bulging bags of big red cod and groupers.

Bottom catches soared to almost fabulous figures during the week, and many of the fish taken definitely were of king size. For example, Mrs. Alma Collins, 4655 Adair, dropped a baited six-hook rig down to the bottom and promptly filled all six hooks with three cow cod, 18 to 20 pounds each, and three groupers, 12 to 14 pounds each.

It was a rare day on which bottom fishermen failed to take limits or near limits of red cod of groupers, and the Point Loma La Jolla area was well represented by particularly successful anglers. Among them were: R. L. Mundy, Major Harry Halladay, J. W. Clark, O. F. Meyers, H. E. Buchanan, J. W. Anderson and Paul Stewart.

Local Youngsters To Appear In Jr. Theatre Play

Three Peninsula youngsters will appear in "Mystery at the Old Fort," San Diego Junior Theatre's next production, according to Jack Harrington, production manager of that organization.

Karen Wilson, 18, daughter of Mrs. George P. Wilson Sr., of 4720 Lantana Dr., will appear as Mrs. Bishop. Roger Dworkin, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dworkin of 3557 Carleton St., will play her spy-hunting son, Dick. The comic part of Lizzie, the maid, will be taken by Hazel Evans, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Evans of 2310 Lucerne Dr. All three are key roles.

The play, now in rehearsal, will be presented in Roosevelt Junior High School Auditorium at 2:30 p.m. Saturdays, February 12 and 19, and Sundays February 13 and 20.

Parents of these Junior Theatre youngsters recently participated in the second of a series of "work parties" at which parents meet to accomplish scenery and costume tasks too big for their offspring. Two hundred fifty pairs of parents have discovered these meetings add up to family participation in a common creative project.

Many of the participating mothers also are members of the local branch of American Association of University Women, which sponsors ticket sales to the February play.

O. B. Kiwanis Honors Youth Building Donors

Importance of such character-building youth organizations as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls was emphasized by Harvey Atherton, "Mr. Boy Scout of San Diego," in a talk to Ocean Beach Kiwanis Club members and honored guests Tuesday night.

The meeting, held in the new Kiwanis Youth Activity Bldg., at Santa Monica Ave. and Ebers St., was billed as "Appreciation Night." Honored were the men and women who contributed time and material toward completion of the building.

The Youth Activity Building will be dedicated Sunday, Feb. 13, at 2 p.m., with City officials and Scout executives participating.

Another speaker was Dan Turner, Kiwanis district lieutenant-governor. Milt Lancaster was program chairman.

Remodeling of the Youth Activity Bldg. was supervised by Jim Restine. It was a Kiwanis Club project.

CHARLES C. DAIL PROFILED; CANDIDATE FOR S. D. MAYOR

What kind of a man is Councilman Charles C. Dail, candidate for mayor? What are his hobbies, where did he come from, what is his background?

Dail has been a resident of San Diego for 20 years and a member of the City Council since 1942. He owns his own home at 5936 Brooklyn Ave., and has resided there since 1940 when he built it.

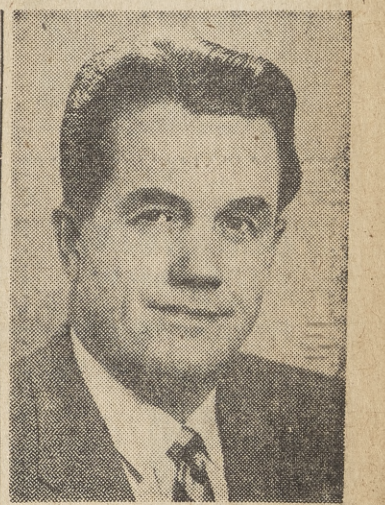

Dail is 46 years old and was born in Kansas City, Kansas. His earlier years took him first to Denver where he attended high school and next to Los Angeles when he was 16. He acquired some legal training, which has been of considerable help in Council deliberations during the past 12 years, at night school in Los Angeles.

He has been 21 years married to his wife Dorothy, a native of Los Angeles; they have no children which Dail regards as the great disappointment in his life, but are fond of pets. They have a parakeet known as Adm. Arbez, and three puppies called Pete, Jake and Art.

Charitable institutions have always found a warm response from Dail, who was stricken with polio at the age of five, and as a result of which he was found physically disqualified during World War II. It has been his deep regret that he was unable to serve his country in uniform.

His present hobbies are fishing and golf, which he doesn't play particularly well.

Since coming to San Diego, Dail has been a member of the First Methodist Church. As chairman of the church's finance committee in 1949, he was responsible for adoption of a new fiscal system putting the church's finances on a pay as you go basis, rather than resort-

He was president of the San Diego Exchange Club in 1951, and is at present president of the Park West Civic Club. He is a Mason and belongs to Silvergate Lodge, F. & A. M.

Dana Jr. High Camp Fire Girls Plan Heart Hop

And on the very first day of the sale and all on her own. Joan Palmer of the Pretty Little Bluebirds, Mrs. L. Marbourg, leader, sold three cases. This group made two scrap books from old Christmas cards which were very much appreciated by the new Children's Hospital.

Kathy Townsend of the Truloki Camp Fire Group, Mrs. A. Van Norman leader, sold five cases of peanuts. Another wonderful record.

Last week, the Truloki Camp Fire Girl had the honor of having Mrs. Frank Les Tina, the Story Lady be present at their meeting. She translated their German letter which had just arrived from their pen pal, and she ended the visit with music from her famous accordion. All in all they enjoyed having her.

Now when ambulances, tow-cars, etc. go scooting around our area, it does not necessarily indicate trouble. Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Michaels, owner of the famous ambulance service on Midway Drive are now home owners in the 1600 block on Chatsworth Blvd. They moved here from Lemon Grove, living with them are their son, Robert and mother of Mrs. Michaels', Mrs. Eva Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Elbogen and grown sons, Jim and Bob, now live in their own home in the 700 block of Tarento Dr. They moved here from Montezuma Rd.
